

Alexander Ude

Chief Compliance Officer.

Alexander boasts an impressive career path marked by a wealth of experience in the banking and financial sectors. Prior to “flipping The Switch” Alex held a pivotal role as the Head of Financial Crime Compliance (FCC) for Nigeria and West Africa at Standard Chartered Bank Nigeria (SCB) Limited. In this capacity, he also provided oversight for the West Africa Cluster FCC team, diligently working towards achieving the objectives outlined in SCB’s conduct principles. His responsibilities encompassed financial crime prevention and ensuring equitable outcomes for customers. During his tenure at Standard Chartered Bank, Alex also held key positions as the Head of FCC Controls and the Head of FCC and Governance.

His professional journey extends beyond Standard Chartered Bank, encompassing vital roles in the banking industry. He served as a Manager in Anti-Money Laundering and Personal and Business Banking Compliance at StanbicBTC Bank, and in previous years, he contributed his expertise as an Officer in Operations Integrity at Spring Bank PLC, along with various operational roles at Guardian Express Bank PLC. Accumulating over two decades of banking experience, Alex is a distinguished Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist. He is also a proud member of the Nigerian Institute of Management and holds an Associate membership with the Compliance Institute of Nigeria. Furthermore, he possesses certification in the Nigeria Data Protection Regulation, demonstrating his commitment to staying abreast of evolving regulatory landscapes.

Alex’s academic pursuits further enrich his professional profile. He pursued a bachelor’s degree in Marketing at the University of Nigeria, followed by the attainment of an MBA in Management from the same esteemed institution. His academic and practical achievements illuminate a career path defined by dedication, expertise, and a steadfast commitment to the highest standards of compliance and financial integrity.
